I got my braces off today. It was probably the best experience socially that I have ever had there. The lady that took my braces off kept complimenting me on my eyebrows and complexion (which I was surprised about because my face is covered in pimples) maybe she was talking about the str

Felt like I was dissapointing
my mom by staying home

mom called me a failure

It is not my Fault I have to stay home. It is what I need
right now.

Recently I have had some scary thoughts. I haven't had them in a while. I'm afraid I'm falling again. I've been showering less, having trouble cleaning my room and losing interest in the things I love. I can't draw. I'm tired of being alone. I was doing good b/k how
+ back to that.

Spanish class sucks.
Everytime I'm in that class I get depressed
b/k of how horrible the class was freshman year.
I remember in class panic attacks.

I also played minecraft with Jamila and her twitter friends. It was cool. I hope I get to go on discord with the again. They seem cool
