

28 VISIT TO

much. All around the banks grew the nicest kind of pipes for blowing soap bubbles.— They looked like the pretty Indian pipe, which grows in the woods sometimes, but these were real

CHILD ISLAND. 29

pipes, and some of the children always were blowing them, and watching the beautiful, many colored globes float off up, up, into the warm summer sky. Carl got at this busi-

CHILD ISLAND. 23

pipes, and some
of the children always were blowing them, and
watching the beautiful, many colored globes
float off up, up,
into the warm
summersky. Carl
got at this busi-

George
John

☩ CARL'S ☩
V I S I T
TO THE Child Island.
—
BY AUNT LAURA.
—
BUFFALO:
BREED, BUTLER & Co
1863.
☩ ☩

A

