The garments shown here were created in response to the following design challenges:

CLASS OF '11

Cocktail Collection: design a collection of contemporary cocktail apparel in collaboration with the current RISD Museum exhibition Cocktail Culture: Ritual and invention in American Fashion, 1920–1980
Senior Thesis: create a collection that reflects the essence and philosophies of your personal vision

CLASS OF '12

Knitwear Design: explore the properties of knits and design cut-and-sew and machine-knit garments
Tailoring Project: interpret traditional tailoring techniques to create a look with a jacket

Re-Innovative Design: explore the properties of recycled materials other than fabric while creating a wearable piece
Print Design Project: create a garment that makes optimal use of printed fabric designed by a RISD Textiles student

* garment for sale

Selected designs from Collection 2011 and other garments will go on sale to the public at noon on Sunday, May 22 in the lobby of the RISD Auditorium, Canal Walk at Market Square (near the corner of South Main and College streets).
