Dr. Henry M. Wriston, President,
Brown University,
Providence, Rhode Island.

Dear Dr. Wriston:

I should have confirmed your letter of July 26th before this, but held it up pending receipt of a copy of your letter to Mr. Washburn. This was not received, but I think you should have the confirmation letter at once.

Following our discussion, then, it seemed to me that the only answer to the problem was to liquidate the Community Art Project and arrange for a division of assets. Mr. Adams has gotten in touch with me about this and we are arranging to send the property of the Community Art Project to the University.

I, too, regret this step, but see no other solution.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Vice President

Community Art Project
