

ALPHABET SOUP

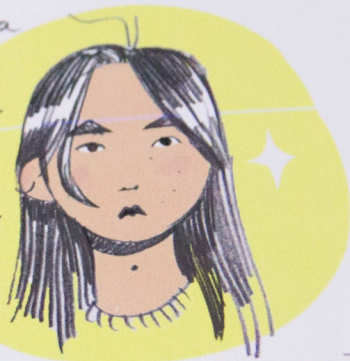

Let's make
some happy
soup!

Angie

I have a
lot of
moles/
freckles.
I think I
counted
40 on
my body
one
time.

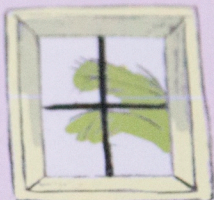

A is for me, I guess?
Angelina Ashley Pei.
Three A's in my name.
I've grown to like my
triangular eyebrows.

N stands for
the BB gun
my dad
bought to
shoot the
opossums in
our back yard
who would harass our outdoor cat, Bobby.

He taught me how to shoot
it and how to aim.

I would use the grape
leaves as targets and
shoot holes into them.
We have no use for the BB
gun anymore. Bobby never came back one day so the opossums didn't either.

O stands for
the three
windows in
my bedroom
back at home.

Sometimes I'd wake up with a migraine because the light would shine on my face while I slept in the morning. The windows
remind me of Sundays,
church, and Costco.

my mother, looking at
me in a questioning way

we
always
considered
my mom
as a cold,
distant
mother.

I knew she
loved me,
I just never
felt it.

and not
children, you would
she didn't respond.

looking back, I felt
the love this particular night. She was hot and tired too, but she was fanning me me.
