Each day up to now has seemed to me
a kind of ritualized procession,
this step-by-step advance to some
defining ceremony,
like a wedding or a funeral.

But whether it will be
a commencement
for me
or else a last crucible,
I do not know.

Let me simply
bear my flesh,
and my blood,
and bones.

I will fly
a flag

Tomorrow,
when this house
is alive and full,
I will be outside,
looking in.

I will be already
on a walk someplace,
in this town
or the next
or one five thousand miles away
I will circle round and arrive again.
Come almost home.

Oh, Perfidious Universitas!

I Do not love thee!--no, I do not love thee!
 And yet when thou art absent I am sad;
 And envy even the bright blue sky above thee,
 Whose quiet stars may see thee and be glad.

I know I do not love thee! yet, alas!
 Others will scarcely trust my candid heart;
 And oft I catch them smiling as they pass,
 Because they see me gazing where thou art.

Supper Longbox

original Last Supper is unquestionably one of the greatest paintings of all time, but what master could be improved with Paint-by-Numbers technology? This 11¼" x 5" x 2½" metal longbox gives you the power and glory of Jesus' last meal mixed with the blurry kitsch of homemade art. With metal finish and a black plastic handle.

Rose, 04/12/2004:

Suzanne, the only way that you're moving to San Francisco is your ability to work 4+ jobs at once. Suzanne is myself, minus the elitist sense of human dignity, plus the ass. I'd go to Israel with you, but I don't like guns.

Adam, 04/07/2004:

A glitter globe made in China dries my tear soaked cheeks each night. Thanks.
