

If I'm shinin', everybody gonna shine
I was born like this, don't even gotta try
I'm like chardonnay, get better over time
Heard you say I'm not the baddest, bitch, you

The milk is sour
With omelets on my thumbs
And I've been out full
Of all that I have dreamed of
The brunt of my existence essentially is a comedy
The gap in my teeth and all that I can cling to

On sunny days I go out walking
I end up on a tree-lined street
I look up at the gaps of sunlight
I miss you more than anything

And though I love you. and you know that Well I no longer know what that's worth

You got a nine to five, so I'll take the night shift
And I'll never see you again if I can help it
