EDITORIAL

Animals are nothing but the forms of our virtues and vices wandering before our eyes, the visible phantoms of our souls." (Victor Hugo)

FOG CITY COMICS is produced in the spirit and tradition of AEsOP'S FABLES by seven of the best artists in the world. From George Metzger's poignant parable of lost childhood innocence to Rand Holmes' ecological allegory of shortsighted resource exploitation, this book is proof of the excellence possible when topnotch talent is allowed unfettered creative expression.

I am proud of FOG CITY COMICS. I hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed putting it together. Letters of comment are both encouraged and appreciated.

This book is dedicated to George Henderson.

Best wishes,
Terry Hamilton,
Editor.

P.S. Back cover features "Cranston Ant" by Gordon Parker, coming next issue.
