PORTFOLIO 1971

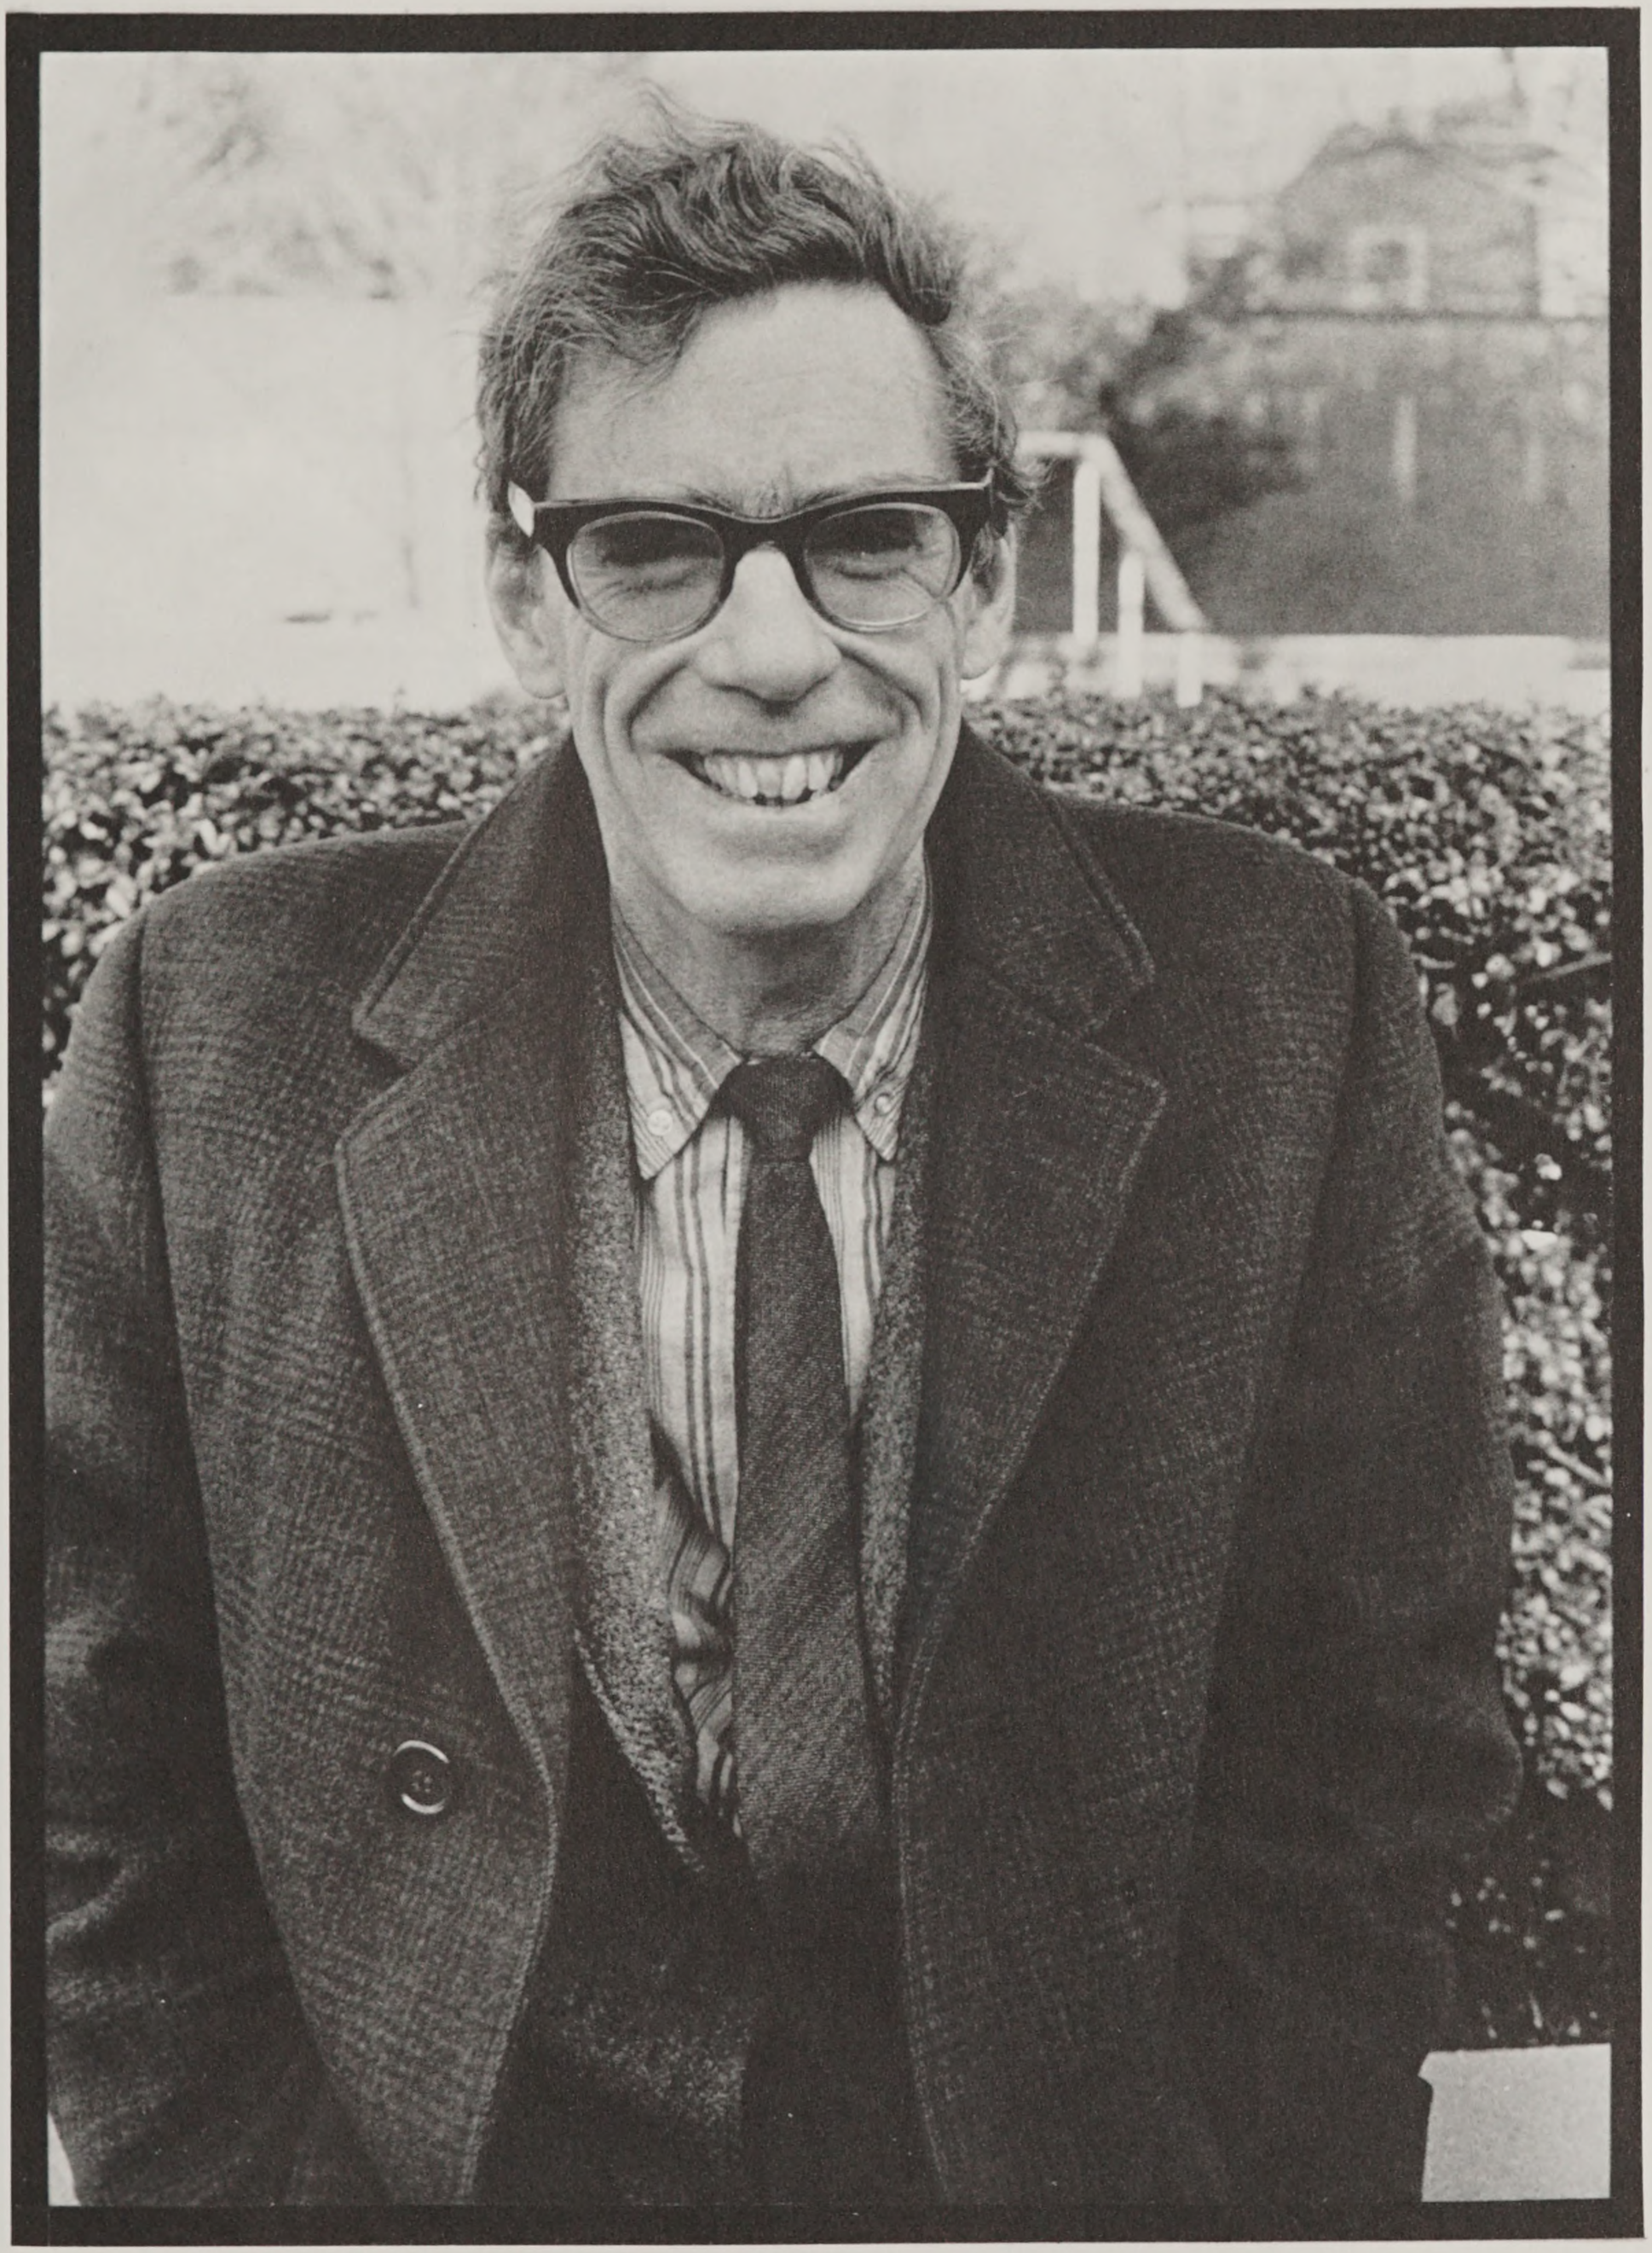
Rhode Island School of Design Providence, Rhode Island

This book is dedicated to Bert Beaver.



In your time here much has happened to you, and much has happened to your school. Wherever there is a climate for change, there is an opportunity for growth. You have helped us grow a little, and I trust that we have helped you grow a little, too. And, I hope that you will keep a bit of this climate around you wherever you go, and that you will continue to grow all your life.
