THE MERRY WIDOW 7:00 Carm.
Dir. by Erich Von Stroheim, with Mae Murray. Those who saw Lub-tisch's version of the MERRY WIDOW last semester will surely not want to miss this interestingly different adaptation. Made immediately after GREED, this film is more solely Stroheim than most of his previous pictures. A Film to be enjoyed by all. 1938, 101 min.

THE GRAPES OF WRATH 9:30 Carm.
Dir. by John Ford, with Henry Fonda, Jane Darwell, John Carradine, Charley Grapewin and Ward Bond. Another of Ford's examinations of the family as a dynamic unit, the story of the Joad family, a group of Oklahoma Dust Bowl farmers, driven off their land by the depression and forced to seek a new life as fruit pickers in California. Of the classic American of the forties, this film holds up today as well as when it was originally shown 35 years ago. 1940, 115 min.

THE LADY VANISHES 12:00 Carm.
Dir. by Alfred Hitchcock, with Sir Michael Redgrave and Margaret Lockwood. Margaret Lockwood gets caught up in a web of conspiracy and international intrigue as she travels back to England from somewhere in Europe. She insists that someone she met has disappeared but cannot find anyone to support her story. Redgrave comes to her aid, as they struggle to get out of a sticky situation involving spies and government secrets, with brain surgeons. One of the greatest classic Hitchcock thrillers. 1938 101 min.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

We are experimenting with the idea of publishing Express-O bimonthly. A calendar such as this will be published those weeks that Express-O is not. This way we can keep you informed of weekly events without an entire publication and at the same time allow for more developed topics and news items for the traditional 16 page paper.

Student Board

Student Board Meeting, Feb. 24, 1975. Meeting begins: 4:45 pm. Colab had an organizational meeting Sun. (Feb. 23). Committees were formed and basic budget discussed. Event Committee is working to bring together any events departments may be planning for that weekend.

Dance is planned to start off Colab Weekend. Parade on May Day through the city is also planned. Competition for logo for Colab 1975, might take place.

Tenative date: May 1-4.

Building Committee: evaluation and further discussion still to come in near future.

Freshman Report: last Wed. students met with John Uvardy, head of Freshman Foundation. Meeting started off on a bad note with Mr. Uvardy taking a defensive and rigid position against openly discussing Freshman gripes and problems. Atmosphere changed and meeting went on and some calm discussion ensued. Mr. Hardu-Keck devised a plan by which Freshmen sign up in departments they wish to explore and then heads of dept. meet with students. This being an attempt to bridge the gap between the Freshman's isolated situation in the "Freshman Foundation Program" and the rest of the school.

Used Books: the possibility of used books being sold back to the Bookstore, brought up by board member.

Meeting ends 5:30.

The RISD Companion, a student handbook, listing sources and information for RISD and beyond from art supplies to zoos, is now available at the Dean of Students office. Come pick up your copy now.

Advanced Descriptive Drawing
Instructor: Winona Taylor

This course uses the approach that technical ability is a door to personal artistic style and individuality, rather than a barrier. It is designed for those who want to develop refined and accurate skills... it is based on the premise that skill is an instrument, to be poetic, an artist must go beyond technique... To discover the mysteries of the artistic process, a variety of themes and problems will be introduced... Collaboration with various drawing and painting materials will culminate in finished final projects... Throughout, the student will be aided in discovering personal influences and guided toward exploration for resource and ideas.

Admittance by Portfolio. Time: Mon. and Tues., 6:00-9:00 PM. Credit: 3.

Anyone interested in Junior and Senior housing for the next year please come to the Dean of Students office to pick up a room contract card and further information. The drawing will be held in a few weeks and notices to that effect will be posted.
