CHANGE
ANYTHING
CAN HAPPEN
NEXT!

Things may be thought of
as bodies of matter and
energy,

which we
apprehend in their process

of continually

coming together and coming apart.

When I
was young
I liked to imagine that things had a certain
permanence
about them.

urther, matter
and energy are always effecting
one another in different ways

since all things
exist as variations in the arrangement of
matter and energy,
